

Eat Wild Tasmanian!

Visit the home and garden of the author Rees Campbell and learn more about native Tasmanian bush food.

When: Saturday September 15th at 11 am until about 2 pm

Where: “Murnong Wild Food Garden”, 17 – 19 George St, Wynyard

What: A welcome brunch, then a walk around the garden with Rees exploring, tasting and smelling the 115+ species of native edible plants in her garden. Rees will explain the plants, what parts can be eaten and how to cook with it. After the walk there will be another chance to sample some bush foods over a Q and A session with Rees. She also has bush food preserves and her book “Eat Wild Tasmanian” for sale.

Cost? $20.00 which includes food and garden walk. Donations to the upkeep of the garden would be warmly welcomed by Rees.

RSVP before September 7 to joanne.bracken@education.tas.gov.au as numbers are limited to 15. Payment (details below) will ensure your spot.

Option 1: Cheque – Please make payment to HEIA Tasmania, noting the event on the reverse side of the cheque, and mail to P.O. Box 165, Launceston 7250. Include your name please!

Option 2: Bank Deposit – Mystate, BSB 807009, Account No. 12162211,

Account Name HEIA TAS. Please place your surname and ‘Rees’ in the reference field.

